

You're Invited!

Please join us for this FREE webinar

Nutrition Education in a Multicultural Society – Tips for Working with Diverse Populations

Wednesday, December 16th
12 noon (MST)

Join registered dietitian and American Dietetic Association spokeswoman Malena Perdomo as she discusses the dietitian's role in promoting health among minority populations. During this 60-minute webinar, Malena will identify best practices for communicating nutrition recommendations to minority clients – with solutions for working with African American, Hispanic, and Native American populations – and discuss how to address key barriers to achieving those recommendations. Participants will be provided with relevant client education handouts as well as a certificate of completion.

This event is FREE of charge, but you must pre-register.

To register for this webinar, visit

<http://registration.intercall.com/go/wdc>.

If you are unable to attend, but are interested in viewing a recording of the webinar, please send an e-mail to jallen@westerndairyassociation.org.

Hope you can join us!